

Fayetteville, Arkansas, Friends Meeting Library

Welcome to the online catalogue of the Fayetteville Friends Meeting Library. We hope you will browse the collection to find titles that inform and encourage you. You may search according to author, title, or subject area.

The online catalog provides the following information for the materials held: author, title, ISBN, date of publication, Dewey Decimal number, subjects, circulation status, and format.

Format Key:

Book: Hardback book.

Paper: Paperback book.

PHP: Pendle Hill Pamphlet.

CD: Compact Disc.

Please note that children's picture books are non-circulating. All books for young people are designated with a J. Picture books and curriculum materials for First Day School are on a separate shelf.

Pendle Hill Pamphlets are also located on a separate shelf. (in Dewey Decimal order)

The few fiction books in the collection are in the 800 section.

In addition to books, the library holds the following periodicals: Quaker Religious Thought, Vol. 1 (spring 1959) through Vol. 27 (July 1995) There is no index, but most volumes are on a single topic. The Carillion, recent issues.

The library is located at the OMNI Building, 3274 Lee Ave, Fayetteville, AR. 72703. It is open on Sundays during the Friends Meeting, 9:30 am to noon.

Materials may be checked out by members and attenders of Meeting.

Here is the link for the online catalogue:

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1vfs8xJLOXzZQxYPBrUeSzP7LSugdOD3Yo-fnvjEZ2Ko/pubhtml>