

"Raise us, Saviour of the world, from the night of our swords and spears.

O! Forgiveness, bring us back. O! Compassion, gather us together.

And there will be fellowship after this." (translation from the Welsh)

- Waldo Williams (1904-1971) - Welsh Bard and Quaker.

being there

The deadline for registration for quarterly is May 15th.

As long promised, Spring Quarterly will finally be at Lake Fort Smith, Arkansas, May 20th – 22nd. We have one group lodge that sleeps 30, 1-3 persons in each room. Cost $15 per person per night. If there are more than 30 that want to sleepover, we might ask for volunteer floor sleepers or Fayetteville commuters. This will be the first time for most if not all of us here, so I'm not quite sure what to expect. But it's new and nice, relatively easy to get to from OKC and LR. Large main room, nice outdoor deck, picnic tables, and lots of hiking, boating, and lounging. For those who want alternative sleeping arrangements, there is also tent camping (among the RVers) available in the park.

Friday night we simply gather and greet Friends. We plan to have worship sharing and workshops* Saturday morning, with the afternoon for hikes, naps, canoeing, etc. Additional workshops can be held late afternoon, after dinner and before music merry making and game playing. Meeting for Worship at 9:00 Sunday morning and leaving shortly after that (official check out time is 11:00 a.m.). Anyone who wants to continue the outdoor experience can stay in the park to hike, canoe again, or anything else. (*workshops are dependent on whoever volunteers to conduct them)

Chef Stan Bond will once again dazzle us with culinary delights. $5 per meal, what a deal! Under 18s only pay for accommodations. Financial assistance is available for students/young adult friends.
