Meeting for Worship is on Sundays. It begins with worshipful singing and sharing at 9:30 a.m. followed by one hour of silent/waiting worship which starts at 9:45 a.m.

After worship on most Sundays there is a break for fellowship with coffee, tea, and snacks, which is then followed, at about 11:15 a.m., by an enlightening and enjoyable, "second hour" program.

Visitors and enquirers are always very welcome.

The Earthcare Committee has a monthly challenge for meeting to help us live greener lives. The challenge for September is: The QEW Committee challenges and encourages Friends to reduce the amount of unused water that is wasted. Friends can do this by not leaving the faucet running while they brush their teeth, by taking showers vs. baths if they're able to, by washing dishes by hand instead of using a dishwasher, or by placing a jug of water in their toilet tank to reduce the amount of water is being flushed down the drain.

The Education Committee is looking for ideas for next year Second Hour programs and film ideas for our study group to start in January. Ideas can be sent to Betty Blanch.

Notes from our Librarian: Several exciting new titles are being added to the Quaker Library. These books are in the process of being accessioned. If you wish to borrow one immediately, they are on the table in the library. Please return promptly and they will be processed for regular check out by mid-October.

Travels of William Bertram, Travels through North and South Carolina, Georgia, East and West Florida, the Cherokee Country (and other destinations)
William Bartran, prominent Quaker naturalist, published the account of his travels in 1791.

Brilliant Green: the Surprising History and Science of Plant Intelligence

This is a small book recommended and donated to the library by Deirdre Phillips.

Woot! September 9th we held a Sign Planting Celebration! Shouting Hooray! as we planted the Certified Wildlife Habitat sign in the ground to make our wildlife habitat "official". Thanks to everyone who helped bring this garden to life!
